A crown of glory—is a beautiful head of hair. An Australian lady now in London writes under date Jan. 28, 1907:

"Ayer's Hair Vigor has done my hair a world of good. Thanks to it, my hair is now thick, glossy, and soft, and when plaited is 55 inches long. Ayer's Hair Vigor ought to be used by every woman who takes pride in her appearance."

You also may have such a crown of glory if you will follow the example of this lady and use

CORPORALS TRY BLUFF BUT COME TO GRIEF

The corporals of the Twentieth Infantry, Fort Shafter, made a big bluff work yesterday morning when they visited the Police Station and informed the authorities that they had come to take Private Buddha back to the camp. The prisoner, who had been in the lock-up over night on a charge of assault and damaging a window belonging to a Chinese, was at once brought into the receiving station to face his superior officers.

Buddha came to attention and saluted, and then was turned over to the corporals. The quartet left the Police Station together, but could not wait till they got home to laugh. Instead, they started talking at once about how smart they had been, and as Deputy Rose was standing on the corner he overheard the conversation. Rose at once re-arrested Buddha.

STRIKE ON HAWAII.

But the present week will witness a general movement back to the plantations. The contract planters are suffering particular damage and it is impossible for the strike fund to reimburse them.

Quiet at Kahuku.

At Kahuku everything is quiet. The fifty men have been discharged and the general work of the plantation is going forward in the hands of laborers other than Japanese.

Cooks Assured.

When the Japanese cook at the Inane Asylum was paid off on Saturday he was asked how much he intended to contribute to the strike fund. In response he held up three fingers, indicating that his share was three dollars. This gives some indication of the assessments that are being levied where possible on the Japanese servants of the city. This man was paid by the month and is the only Japanese man employed at the Asylum. The agents of the Asylum are going about collecting what they can from the Japanese servants. Some report that they are getting very little, and others say they got a very fair amount on the first round but can get no more.

$23.19 Per Month.

Expense of the false statements on which the High Wage Agitators have based their campaign continues. E. D. Tenney punctured the Agitators' balloon with an array of facts, and now Manager Bull of Oahu plantation has given out a statement in which he shows that the average wages paid the Japanese of his plantation during the twelve months of 1908 was $23.19 a month in addition to free fuel, free houses and free medical attendance. This puts another nail in the coffin of the eighteen-dollar-a-month cry. Oahu plantation alone paid out in wages during the period, over five hundred thousand dollars.
